Ask Questions

Careers fairs and employer events are great networking opportunities. Be ready with questions - whether the setting is formal or informal.

- Q. What kind of interviews or activities are involved in applying for roles with your company?
- Q. What advice would you give someone who is about to graduate?
- Q. Do roles in your company require certain degrees subjects or classifications (e.g. 1st, 2:1, etc.)?
- Q. What advice would you give to help someone stand out from others who apply?
- Q. What support/training will I receive on the job?
- Q. Does your company offer work placements? How would I apply, if so?
- Q. What paid opportunities do you offer? If you offer any, how would I apply?
- Q. What is a typical working day like?
- Q. How would you describe the culture in your organisation?
- Q. How is AI affecting jobs/roles in your company/organisation?
- Q. Do you offer opportunities to international students?
- Q. How do you view postgraduate qualifications?
- Q. Does your company have a graduate, year in industry, summer internships programme, or similar?
If so, how would I apply?
- Q. What is the company culture and working environment like at your company?
- Q. What is the environment like at your company?
- Q. Does your organisation offer hybrid/flexible working?
- Q. Does your organisation have a sustainability program?
- Q. Does your company have inclusivity programmes or initiatives?

Who better to help shape the future direction of Swansea University than Swansea graduates?

Keep a look out for emails and calls from the Graduate Outcomes Team around 15 months after you graduate. You'll be asked to complete a short survey to help shape the future of your university and higher education.

If you have any questions, get in touch with Samantha Summerill, Alumni Officer (Graduate Outcomes) on s.j.summerill@swansea.ac.uk.
